LJ is the best of the best! I truly cannot say enough amazing things about him. He takes your expectations then blows them out of the water. He is smart, meticulous, and all around excellent. His clients' best interest is clearly his top priority. You will see from the first phone call he is passionate about his work, extremely knowledgeable about the market, and committed to making his clients happy. He is very reliable and will be in communication with you from start to finish. He really goes above and beyond and I couldn't have asked for a better person through this process. I trusted him completely from day one. I could go on all day! I'm extremely grateful for his hard work on my behalf. Next time I need an agent my first and only call will be to LJ. He's the guy you want! Thank you so much LJ!

When my wife and I first met LJ Bunker he was very well prepared and had a well thought out plan to properly market and sell our home. He answered all of our questions and concerns to make sure we all were on the same page moving forward. The listing started on a Friday, he hosted a very busy open house the next day with 20+ showings over the weekend, multiple offers came in over the same weekend, and our home sold for 10% over asking price. Everything went exactly to plan as LJ worked tirelessly for us behind the scenes to make sure everything went smoothly. I have never met a realtor that I could recommend over LJ as it appears he has found his perfect calling.

Paul Willigan

I cannot say enough good things about LJ Bunker. I had to sell a home that belonged to my deceased brother. LJ was with me every step of the way. From the moment I met him until the final sale, LJ was enthusiastic, trustworthy and professional. He checked in with me every day, made recommendations, and guided me through a very difficult and emotional process. I am not local to the area, and LJ took on the responsibility to look after the house, and arrange for any maintenance or other issues that arose.

I have bought and sold 5 homes over the years and dealt with numerous realtors. I can say without hesitation that LJ topped them all.

I researched real estate agents for probably three weeks. LJ's track record reviews and sales were the best. I was very thorough in my research and he is definitely the best! LJ Bunker knows his business and it shows! He is excellent at his job. When I first met him the energy coming off this man blew me away. My family and I are so impressed with LJ, we have all been telling our friends and other family members if they're selling or buying, he is the man to get in contact with. If I ever need to buy or sell a home again, he will be the first call I make. I just wanna say thank you very much for a fantastic experience. Selling or buying a home is super stressful, but not if you're working with LJ.

This was my first home sale, therefore I was quite nervous, as I have heard stories of how overwhelming it can be. Then I met my realtor, LJ. He truly was a guiding light for me during the whole process. The moment I met with him, I immediately felt safe and that I could trust in him. Professional, punctual and extremely affable, I gave LJ my home to sell and he hit a home run. Thank you for helping me every step of the way and being there for me at all hours of the day. I have no doubt that you are the best in this business now and for years to come.

LJ worked with us when we bought our home back in 2017 and showed us what an amazing realtor he was. When we decided to sell our home this spring we only would have used LJ again as our realtor. He is extremely knowledgeable, attentive to details and just a pleasure to work with! If you are looking to work with a realtor who has your best interest at heart then LJ should be who you call.

A shout out and huge thank you to LJ Bunker for all of your hard work and professionalism (also a really great guy!) 65 showings and sold in 2 days - $55K over the asking price! I highly recommend him, he's the best in the business.

Linda Tersavich | CT - Seller

We selected LJ Bunker to be our agent based on his professional introduction and targeted marketing plan to sell our house. LJ was great through the selling process - and helped us get our house sold in no time, at the best possible price. As our house sale was a bit complex, LJ's deep knowledge and expertise were critical in helping us navigate the various steps. LJ remained proactive, positive and kept us on track - we truly feel we could not have done it without his support. Thank you LJ!

Matteo LoGrande | CT - Seller

LJ does it again! After LJ helped my family land our first home, he sold our investment condo for a record price in less than 7-days in the very sought after town of West Hartford. LJ continues to impress with his calm, cool, and collected manner, all while getting his client top dollar. There's not many agents like LJ in CT and he will forever be my family's go-to agent for all things property!
